Private Helicopter Tour of the Wonders of Sedona

The Experience: Experience unparalleled beauty as we take an extended tour of the greater Sedona area. Catch a glimpse of Sycamore Canyon with the Verde River lazily winding its way through. A quick peak of “Robbers Roost,” and some of the most amazing panoramic views of Sedona to be had. Behold the mighty and looming Mingus Mountain with the old mining town of Jerome perched on her side. After its founding in 1876, Jerome was at one time the fourth largest city in Arizona with the population peaking at around 15,000 in the 1920’s. Today the mines may be silent, but Jerome has found new life as the largest ghost towns in America.

Sycamore Canyon Wilderness encompasses the second largest canyon in Arizona’s red rock country and was designated a wilderness area in 1972. A lesser known, but equally scenic, cousin of Oak Creek Canyon, Sycamore Canyon Wilderness contains more than 50,000 acres of colorful cliffs, soaring pinnacles, and one of the world’s rarest habitats, a desert riparian area.

Duration: 50–55 min long.
